Power of Forgiveness

BIG IDEA: Forgiveness heals wounds and restores hope.

Matthew 6:9-15 NIV | “This, then, is how you should pray: ‘Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,¹⁰ your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.¹¹ Give us today our daily bread.¹² And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.¹³ And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.’¹⁴ For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.¹⁵ But if you do not forgive others their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins.”

1. Forgiveness is at the heart of how we relate to God and those in our circles of community. (vv. 9-13)
2. Forgiveness restores broken relationships and brings peace. (vv. 14-15)

Colossians 3:12-14 NIV | Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.¹³ Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.¹⁴ And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

3. We should be known for compassion and grace. (v. 12)

4. We love because we have been loved. We forgive simply because we have been forgiven. (vv. 13-14)

NEXT STEPS: Ask yourself, who do you need to forgive? Take time this week to pray through any grudges you may be holding on to. Ask God to help you let go of these and receive His peace.

Going deeper on your own: Reflect on the statement, “Forgiveness heals wounds and restores hope.” Can you recall a personal story where forgiving someone (or being forgiven) brought you peace or healing?

Read Matthew 6:9-15. How does the Lord’s Prayer guide us in our understanding of forgiveness? Why do you think Jesus emphasizes forgiveness in this prayer?

Read Ephesians 4:31-32. How can removing the negative emotions listed in this passage make space for forgiveness and reconciliation in your relationships?

Create a Forgiveness Action Plan. Begin by writing down names of those you need to forgive, including yourself, if needed. Then, commit to specific, practical steps to seek reconciliation—this could be writing a letter, initiating a conversation, or simply praying for that person daily.

Annual Business Meeting

Our Annual Business Meeting is today at 12:45 pm in The Warehouse. This meeting will be your opportunity to discuss and ask questions about the 2025 budget. Covenant members will vote to approve the budget and affirm Elders for the next year. The budget information is available to review on the website and hard copies at the Welcome Desk.

Christmas Eve Services

We will have four services on Christmas Eve – 12:31pm, 2:01pm, 3:31pm and 5:01pm. There will be programming for infants – 6th grade at each service. This is a great time to invite others to experience the joy of Christmas. We can't wait to see you at one of our special Christmas Eve services!

Holiday Schedule

After Christmas Eve, we are giving our volunteers and staff a well-deserved break. On Sunday, Dec. 29 we will not have services on campus. Instead, we are preparing a special online service. It will be available on the CPC website and social media, and we'll send it via text and email. Also, please note that the church office will be closed from Dec. 25 to Jan. 1. There will also be no Student Life or Prime Time during this week. We will resume regular programming and office hours on Jan. 2.
